Reddere perſonæ ſcit convenientia cuiq;
HOR.

WRITERS, from the beſt to the worſt, from Bolingbroke to any one the Reader pleaſes, ſeem all agreed in nicknaming the preſent the degenerate Age. They cannot all agree in a Miſtake, if there be any Truth in that learned Proverb ſo frequent in the Mouths of our goſſip Literati, and which ſo confidently aſſerts, that "what Everybody ſays muſt be true."

But we muſt place the Matter in a better View. When we ſaid all Writers are agreed, it would be underſtood with Reſervation: the worſt Writers ('tis proſtituting the Word) ſay of courſe what the beſt have ſaid before; in which indeed they have this Merit, that, following the Figure like ſo many Ciphers, they innocently encreaſe the Value of their Leader while they vainly aim to encreaſe their own. Whoever reads the modern daily Eſſays on Moral Philoſophy, after reading the Spectator, will ſee the Strength of this Obſervation to the beſt Advantage.

Hence we infer, in reverential Awe to the Wiſdom of the aforecited Proverb, that, while the Truth may continue unarraigned, we have not in our Power to deny its Application, here. "What Everybody ſays muſt be true" is not the Point, becauſe the Critics will not allow the bad Writer to be Anybody, and conſequently that he is, according to the Vulgus, Nobody. Yet it muſt be confeſſed, this is a Quibble which any Man, who is not called to the Bar, ought to bluſh: And whether I do or not, let it either prevent or invite Cenſure, I ſhall be entirely left to the ſagacious Reader; for as he is the beſt Man who has the leaſt Error, ſo is he the beſt Writer (we are told) who has the leaſt Digreſſion. For this very reaſſing Reaſon we have no Time to loſe in impertinent Informations or over-curious Inquiſitions.

As we have obſerved Unanimity among Writers on this Topic,--that of defaming the preſent Age,--the Attempt to break that Unanimity, by entering a Diſſent from it, would undoubtedly be eſteemed the utmoſt Temerity. But, be the Conſequence what it will, tho' we muſt fall under the Ban of the aweful Scribling Empire, we ſhall, Dimmock like, throw the Gauntlet of Defiance againſt any who ſhall disprovett the Title of the preſent Age to Virtue and Public Spirit.

We do not however profeſs ourſelves the Champion of the Times with the ſame mercenary Motives of the Coronation-Hero juſt mentioned. It his Place, and therefore his Intereſt, which engages his Protection of Royal Weakneſs: 'Tis our voluntary Inclination to defend the Virtue of the Public, which it ſeems is weak enough to be attacked, or rather unlucky enough to be belied. We diſdain, and he ſeeks, Reward. This important Matter thus ſtated in its true Light, we proceed.

A fruitful Subject may make a happy Writer, and the Reverſe is equally true. The Abundance or Penury of the Subject is much more the Cauſe of Pleaſure or Pain in the Reader, tho' he is not aware of it, than either the Writer's Abilities or his Want of them. We mention this, that too large a Share of Merit may not be attributed to us in conſequence of what follows: For,

In Cauſâ facili cuivis licet eſſe diſerto,
"In an eaſy Cauſe any one may eaſily ſucceed." Theſe previous Flouriſhes, it muſt be obſerved, are not however to be found ſo modeſt in every Champion; for great Heroes, like little Authors, have great Vanity, which is but too apt to aſcribe every thing rather to their own inherent Virtue and Valour, than to any incidental Cauſes that nevertheleſs might render ill Succeſs impoſſible. They have the Merit indeed of applying thoſe incidental Cauſes uncontraverted.

We are to prove this is not the degenerate Age, by pointing out the Public Spirit and Virtue to which we are to defend its Title. And this we deſign to do by public and private Examples.

We are aware of a pertinacious Remark that might be put in here, which is, that the Public Spirit and Virtue that require Proof have but a very dubious Exiſtence. Foreſeeing this Appearance of an Objection we have foreſtalled it, by remarking it ourſelves; and to remark is in the preſent caſe to confute it.

We ſhall begin firſt with public Example, for one public and one private (out of many that lie ready) will be thought very ſufficient for the Purpoſe.

This Example of Public Spirit is ſo obvious, that nothing but the wilful Blindneſs of malignant Perſons render the citing it at all neceſſary. But it is the Perverſeneſs more than the Wants of Mankind that ſo buſily employ us: Nor ſhould we be obliged to point the Finger of Direction towards Germany to mark out the Public Spirit of England, were it not for this Cauſe. The Regulation of the Affairs of Europe moſt certainly demands Public Spirit; and as the Regulators are well known, as well as the 'Squires of the Regulation, or thoſe who generouſly pay for it, who can deny the Public Spirit of Engliſhmen?

But it may be objected, by thoſe who live in Calumny, that we have purpoſely omitted the Word Virtue in the Example; inſinuating that the Public Spirit there mentioned, and Virtue, are different Affections; and that therefore we had artfully omitted the laſt. See the Power of Cavil! Who, unacquainted with the Wiles of our Adverſaries, could have divined the undeſigned Omiſſion of a mere ſynonimous Word capable of producing an Objection ſo plauſible and yet ſo falſe? It were well to be cautious with ſuch crafty Diſputants; for to this Caution do we owe our Prevention of a treaſonable or at leaſt libellous Imputation they were preparing for us, as if we meant to ſay, there is no Virtue in the Engliſh german Public Spirit, when 'tis plain we could mean no ſuch Thing. If their Ignorance require it, let them conſult Mr. Ainſworth, or any other more elaborate Dictionarian, if ſuch can be found, and then ſay whether the Synonymy alleged be feigned or real.---- The good-natured ingenious Reader will ſee the Neceſſity, and will therefore excuſe the Length, of this timely Remark, which the Rhetoricians would call a Prolepſis, or preventive Argument, and of all others the moſt uſeful; becauſe the evil Mouth of Contradiction and Sophiſtry is thereby ſhut.

It is not, as before hinted, from the Want, but from the Number, of Examples, that we confine ourſelves to two, one public and one private. But the one we have already given is of ſo general and extenſive a Nature, that it might alone be ſufficient to eſtabliſh our Title to the Spirit and Virtue in queſtion, and in conſequence to overthrow the maliceful Charge of Degeneracy: For, how can we be ſaid to degenerate, when, by the ſingle Example before us, we are demonſtrated to be more public-ſpirited, and of courſe more virtuous, than even our Anceſtors themſelves ever pretended to be!

Some there are indeed who would change the Epithet Public into Foreign, and, inſtead of our Public, give us a Foreign, Spirit. But then they are Enemies to the Conſtitution, and dare not meet us Arm to Arm in open Daylight.

The private Example we propoſe to give of our Virtue and Public Spirit is rather too well known to be called private, if it was not ſo called in Contradiſtinction to the public Example given. The one regards Europe in general, the other only the Cities of London and Weſtminſter; but both equally point to the Honour of Engliſhmen, in the Eſtabliſhment of their Virtue and Public Spirit.

The daily Papers and public Fame are our Authorities in the preſent caſe. They both labour, 'tis true, under the very faulty Imputation of Lying. But the Notoriety of the Fact will ſufficiently authenticate them in the Inſtance we ſhall ſelect from them.

"To the Deputy and Common-Councilmen of the Ward of Billingſgate.

"GENTLEMEN, Cav. ſq. June 9, 52.

"I am extremely obliged to my worthy Friends the Inhabitants of your Ward, for the diſtinguiſhing Mark of their Favour, and to you for the warm Expreſſions of Regard contained in your Letter of this Date:—— But as the Acceptance of a Civil Office would interfere with the Military one that I have the Honour to hold, in which I ſhall ever be ready to ſerve my King and Country, I hope I ſhall ſtand excuſed in declining the ſingular Honour ſo unanimouſly and obligingly offered to, &c."

There are not wanting ſome People who, to gratify their Ill Humours, will affect even Stupidity itſelf. They cannot, will not ſee the Public Spirit in this Occurrence, 'till they have given us the tedious Trouble of diſtinguiſhing it even to the Apprehenſion, we had almoſt ſaid of a Brute-beaſt; but we miſtook, for ſuch

Animal is more docile and intelligent than a Brute-man, or Man-brute.

The Reader will excuſe this Warmth, which our Regard for the public-ſpirited Letter-writer perhaps too haſtily inſpired. But when an honourable Gentleman declares he will not accept of a Civil Office to interfere with his Military one, and when the Virtue and Public Spirit of ſuch a Conduct are wilfully and invidiouſly overlooked, there is, in pure Verity, found Cauſe of Reſentment.

Others too are offended, becauſe, forſooth, the ———l has more Honours attempted to be heaped upon him than they could procure with all their Intereſt; and then, with all poſſible Spleen, they deride City-Honours, and indulge the Laugh at the worthy ——'s Expence.—— But as this does not oppoſe the Virtue in conſideration, our Reſpect to the Poſſeſſor of it only led us to mention this in Ridicule of his Deriders.

But there are ſome of theſe Malignants who dive deeper into Things. They cry, "If a Civil Office interferes with a Military one, how comes the ———l to be a Member at the ſame time." The Folly and Danger of this kind of Reaſoning are too evident to need Explanation; for if all Military Officers were excluded the Houſe of Commons agreeable to the abominable Driſt of this Argument, what would become of the preſent Conſtitution which owes its very Exiſtence and greateſt Security to theſe ſame Military Gentlemen? That would would be like throwing down a new Houſe before it was well finiſhed. But G*d preſerve our happy Conſtitution, young as it is!

Theſe too are the Shots of covert Foes, Enemies to our Conſtitution, Men who place their Safety in their Obſcurity; or we ſhould teach them better Manners if not better Sentiments.

Thus have we, in Oppoſition to the whole defamatory Tribe of Scriblers, made out the Public Spirit and Virtue of our Cotemporaries, as far as we propoſed or intended: And if we have not done this to the Confuſion of our Opponents, it muſt be owing to a certain Quality in them we ſhall not name.

LONDON.

Whitehall, June 13. The King has been pleaſed to appoint the right. hon. George earl of Cardigan, governor & captain of his majeſty's caſtle of Windſor, &c. in the room of Charles duke of St. Alban's, deceaſed.

To appoint the right hon. John lord Delaware, lieutenant general of his majeſty's forces, governor of his majeſty's iſland of Guernſey, and caſtle of Cornet.

To appoint the right hon. Charles lord Cadogan, lieutenant general of his majeſty's forces, to be governor of the fort and blockhouſe of Weſt Tilbury, in the county of Eſſex; and alſo of the town of Graveſend.

And to appoint Sir John Mordaunt, knight of the Bath, major general of his majeſty's forces, to be governor of the fort of Sheerneſs, in the room of lord Cadogan.

Thurſday morning an expreſs arrived at the late lord biſhop of Durham's houſe in Privy-garden, Whitehall, which brought an account that his lordſhip died on Wedneſday laſt at the Bath, after a tedious illneſs; his death is univerſally lamented. And

We are informed, that Dr. Trevor, biſhop of St. David's, will ſucceed him in the biſhoprick of Durham. And

That Dr. Johnſon, one of his majeſty's chaplains, will be made a new biſhop.

Laſt week the Rev. Mr. Keete, Rector of Beauchampton in Notinghamſhire, was preſented by the right hon. John earl of Salisbury, to the living of Hatfield in Hertfordſhire.

As was alſo the Rev. Mr. Neale, miniſter of Cheſhunt in Hertfordſhire, to the living of Clothall, both void by the death of Dr. Samuel Haynes late Canon of Windſor.

Likewiſe his lordſhip was pleaſed to preſent the Rev. Mr. Hare, to the living of Beauchampton in Nottinghamſhire, void by the reſignation of the Rev. Mr. Keete.

There is a report, that his royal highneſs the duke, when he takes his intended tour, will take a view of Houghton-hall in Norfolk, which ſeat, 'tis ſaid, his royal highneſs deſigns to purchaſe.

On Saturday laſt the deputy and common council of the ward of Billingſgate, waited on Sir Peter Warren at his houſe in Cavendiſh ſquare, to acquaint him of his having been choſe alderman of that Ward, and again to requeſt his acceptance of that office; when, after receiving them very politely, he was pleaſed to expreſs his refuſal in the moſt obliging Manner.

William Beckford, Eſq; of Founthill, in Wilts, member of parliament for Shaftesbury in Dorſetſhire, has wrote a letter to the court of aldermen, ſignifying his intention of accepting the office of alderman of Billingſgate ward, in the room of Sir Peter Warren.

A wardmote for the election of an alderman of Billingſgate ward, in the room of Sir Peter Warren, Knight, will not be held 'till the middle of next week, his reſigning the ſame not having been communicated to the court of alderman at Guildhall on Tueſday laſt.

Wedneſday John Waters, Eſq; citizen and draper, and Thomas Brookes, Eſq; citizen and broiderer, paid their fines into the chamber of London, to excuſe them from ſerving the office of ſheriff. Alſo,

John Holmes, Eſq; paid his fine into the chamberlain's office.

We hear that John Roberts, Eſq; Governor of Gambia, is come home in the aſſiſtance man of war lately arrived at Plymoth.

On Saturday died at her houſe at Iſleworth, the lady Humble, aged 76, widow of Sir William Humble, Bart. She has left, by her will, all her eſtate, real and perſonal, to Miſs Powis, daughter to the Right Hon. lady Mary Powis, ſiſter to the earl of Cardigan.

Wedneſday morning died, at his houſe in Pall-mall, in an advanced age Sir Philip Honeywood, Knt. of the Bath, the oldeſt general of horſe, colonel of his Majeſty's regiment of horſe guards blue, and governor of Portſmouth.

We hear from Llantawyre in Carmarthenſhire, the ſeat of Walter Powell, Eſq; high ſheriff of the County, that on the 10th of June ſome villains got into his houſe, in the abſence of all the Family but the houſekeeper, whom they butchered in a moſt terrible manner, by cutting off her head, which they carried to a different part of the houſe from the body; and after plundering the houſe they made off undiſcovered. Some ſtraggling beggars (men and women) were obſerved about the houſe, the day the fact was committed.

We hear that ſome perſons, of great Abilities and eſtabliſhed characters, are actually gone to viſit the Britiſh colonies in America, in order to obtain a diſtinct, certain, and inconteſtible account of their condition, intereſt, connections, ſchemes of improvement, grievances, &c. So that, in points of ſuch conſequence, the mother country may be in no danger of being impoſed on by projectors here, or deceived by men of authority there.

On Tueſday laſt an Engliſh gentleman and his ſervant, a foreigner, came in a poſt chaiſe, in his way to Scotland, to an Inn at Stevenage in Hertfordſhire. Preſently after, two of his majeſty's meſſengers arrived at the ſame Inn, took the gentleman into cuſtody, and brought him and his ſervant in two poſt chaiſes to town, one meſſenger in one chaiſe with the gentleman, and the other with his ſervant. It is not publicly known who this perſon is, no mention from authority having yet been made of this affair.

Wedneſday morning the Richmond ſtage coach was robbed by two highwaymen genteelly dreſſed, & well mounted, who behaved very civilly.

An Account given to Capt. Buckle of his majeſty's ſhip the Aſſiſtance, on the 30th of March, at the iſland of St. Thomas, by Nicholas Scarey, Seamen, belonging to the Clayton Snow, Capt. Patrick, of Liverpool, viz.

He ſays they were took the 3d day after they came out of the river Bonny, by a pirate, which was the Three Siſters' long boat, Capt. Jenkins, of Liverpool, off Ferdinando Poo, laſt March.

The Clayton ſnow is a ſquare ſterned veſſel, near 200 tons, has 4 two pounders and 6 ſwivels, beſides 4 ſwivels which the pirates took out of the long boat, and had 310 ſlaves on board when taken, carries 2 top gallant yards. The pirates with our mate and 2 boys, which they preſt, amount to 17 men in all. The pirate watered at Ferdinando, and the Clayton made towards her, thinking ſhe was in diſtreſs, ſupplied her with proviſions and water. Three of the men only ſhewed themſelves, when the Clayton's boat was on board, two of which came on board the Clayton in her boat, and went on board their large boat again, which had put off on the weather quarter. They ſoon after violently entered on board the ſnow again, with ſword and piſtol in hand, and wounded Capt. Patrick in ſeveral places. The number in the boat were nine men and a boy. She was a large boat and they were ſent a trading, and left their ſhip at Maumba: The Pirate took the opportunity of luffing up under the lee quarter of the Clayton, when all the Hands were forward except the captain and gunner, and then took her: They kept us in irons, but afterwards releaſed us and turned us adrift, having ſome bread, beef, pork, butter, a ſmall cag of brandy, and 6 casks of water; but before they put us into the boat, they hoiſted out two bales, one ſcarlet cloth, the other handkerchiefs.

Soon after they had put us in irons, they asked if any were willing to go a roving, if ſo they would cloath us in ſcarlet, on which four of our crew entered voluntarily, and they preſſed the chief mate & two boys.

We were twelve days before we could get into the river Bonny; and when we were there the king of the country ſeized the long boat; on which ſome of us entered into one ſhip and ſome into another, and I entered on board the Suſannah, of Briſtol, Robert Cowey; Captain Patrick went with Capt. Jackſon of Liverpool, bound to the Weſt Indies. When we left Bonny, there were the following Engliſh ſhips in the river, the Boyne, Hermitage, and the Grace belonging to Liverpool; three other, names not known, and a Portugueſe ſnow.

By the Aſſiſtance and St. Albans men of war, arrived at Plymouth from Anamaboo on the coaſt of Guinea, there is advice, that though the French ſquadron on that coaſt departed thence ſoon after commodore Buckle's arrival there, they had previouſly got the conſent of the natives for making a ſettlement in that neighbourhood, and intend to proſecute the work ſpeedily, as was intimated ſome time ago.

We hear from Clee hill near Ludlow in Shropſhire, that there is, at that place, one Lucy Wadley, ſpinſter, aged 105, who has been blind for ſeveral years laſt paſt, but can now ſee as well as ever ſhe could, is breeding a new ſet of teeth, walks about and is in perfect health.

Yeſterday 7-night a famous gingerbread ſeller known by the name of Tididol, was found murdered in Chelſea field; it is ſaid, that he was robbed of 20 and that they who committed the murder muſt have been acquainted with his being then poſſeſſed of the ſum.

Laſt Saturday 77 Children were brought to the Foundling Hoſpital; of which ten boys and ten girls were admitted by lot, in the preſence of ſeveral governors.

We have advice from Lisbon, that the vent of Britiſh woollen goods greatly diminiſh; which is undoubtedly be occaſioned by the great quantities of wool run to France.

On Saturday laſt a young man, who lately lived at a public houſe in Fleet-ſtreet, was detected by Endfield offering a horſe to ſale that had been ſtolen, and the ſame evening was committed to Newgate. He had when taken ſome plate upon him, which was alſo ſuppoſed to have been ſtolen.

From the Paris A-la-main, June 19.

The Petition which was lately presented to the King by the deputies of the clergy, consisted of three points: The first was to beseech his majesty that he would not admit into the commission which was going to be established, any lay-judge: The second, That no parliament should be allowed to take cognizance of affairs which concerns religion: And the third, That the parliament should be obliging to make the archbishop of Paris Reparation for having accused him, in their last remonstrances to his majesty, as a promoter of a schism which was ready to inflame the church.

Mr. Keith's Chapel, in May-Fair, Hyde-Park Corner, where the Marriages are performed by Virtue of a Crown Stamp and Certificate for a Guinea, is opposite the great Chapel and within Ten Yards of it. The Way to the Chapel is thro' Piccadilly, by the End of St. James's-street, and down Clarges-street, and turn on the Left-Hand.—Several Persons belonging to Churches and Chapels together with many others, supposing the Marriages to be detrimental to their Interest, have made it their Business to rave and clamour, but in such a Manner, as not to deserve an Answer, because every Thing they have said tends only to expose their own Ignorance and Malice, in the Opinion of People of good Sense and Understanding.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Newcastle, June 13. On Saturday last his Majesty's sloop of war the Peggy, sailed out of Shields Harbour to protect the herring busses now fishing off Shetland.

We hear from Chatton in Northumberland, that Mr. Pratt, in that neighbourhood, who was bit by a mad cat about five months ago, died last week under the deplorable circumstances attending that malady. The cat had been bit by a mad dog, but being a favourite, was put under confinement by Mr. Pratt, in order to prevent danger, and to preserve her life if possible; but as he was offering her some meat too cautiously, she suddenly snatched at his fingers, which occasioned this melancholy event.

Margate June 14. We hear from Minster, that the wife of one Long, a labouring man of that place murdered her child, by thrusting a crust of bread into the child's throat: she is committed to Canterbury Gaol.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, June 9. We hear from Fort William, that 12 persons have been taken up & confined there on suspicion of being concerned in the murder of Mr. Colin Campbell of Glenure.

BANKRUPTS.

William Lazenby, of Whitby in the county of York, dealer and chapman.

John Hutchins the younger, of Seavington St. Mary, in the county of Somerset, maltster.

A Gentlewoman, the Wife of a Merchant, now big with Child and near her Time, whose Husband once lived in Credit and Esteem, but thro' inevitable Misfortunes has been confined in Prison Five Years and upwards, and is now destitute of all Relief or Succour but what the good and gracious Hand of Providence shall move well-disposed Christians to bestow, humbly implores their Charity to help them and their Family in this their Distress.——The Compassionate who are pleased to lend an assisting Hand in the Preservation of this Family from perishing for want, are desired to send their Donations to Mr. Purser, a Printer, in Red-Lion Court, Fleet-street; and the Favour shall be publicly acknowleged in the Paper.

By the KING's PATENT,

For this Kingdom and the Plantations,

THE Purging Antivenereal ELECTUARY (whereby all Degrees and Symptoms of the Venereal Disease, from the slightest Infection to the most confirmed Pox, are happily cured and eradicated) is sold only by the Proprietor, R. ROCK, L. M. at his Chymist's Shop, the Corner of Bell-Savage Inn Gateway, Ludgate-hill, London, at Six Shillings the Pot.

A Book of plain Instructions for each Person to know the State he is in, with the Symptoms attending the different Degrees of Infection, and plain Directions how to treat them, whereby he may in general be his own Physician, is given with each Pot of Electuary.

This Medicine is not unpleasant to take, is of a safe and gentle Nature, not operating violently, yet roots out the Disease; it requires not too strict a Regimen of Diet, nor exposes the Body to Injury from the Weather.

No Person need be apprehensive of a Discovery of his Disorder from this Medicine, as it may be taken, and the Patient follow Business as usual.

Those who suspect they have received some Taint from a Converse with an impure Person, by taking a Dose or two of this Electuary may have their Minds set at Ease, either by its shewing them, from no Symptoms appearing, that they have escaped, and are safe; or, in case of Infection, by bringing on a gentle Discharge of the Virus, which otherwise would have lain lurking in them, and spreading its Malignity.

Such as have received imperfect Cures, may, by a few Doses of this Electuary, have all Infection carried off, and their Cure happily completed.

Nor is this Medicine less effectual in the Cure of some Species of the Rheumatism; and may be had at my Shop, on asking for a Six Shilling Pot of Electuary for the Rheumatism.

Persons likewise of a Scrophulous, Scorbutic, or gross Habit of Body, cannot have a better cleansing, purifying, and sweetening Purge; which, regularly and properly taken, will do Wonders towards their Cure.

Persons who have got any Degree of the Venereal Disease, and are obliged to go to Sea with it on them, would do well to take some of this Electuary and my plain Book of Instructions with them: They'll soon find the Benefit of so doing, and it will keep good in all Climates.

This Electuary is efficacious in carrying off all Impurities in an easy gentle Manner; is safe for Persons of all Ages and both Sexes.—And the Proprietor, who has practised Medicine for Two-and-thirty Years, and made the Cure of the Venereal Disease his principal Study, attends from Seven in the Morning till Ten at Night, to give his Patients and Customers all necessary Advice and Assistance to the Completion of their Cure.

He answers all Letters, Post paid.

At the above Place may be had, my genuine Restoring Viper Drops, 3s. a Bottle.

Chymical Liquor for curing the ITCH, or any other BREAKING OUT whatever. Price 1 s 6 d. the Bottle.

Daffy's ELIXER 9 d. the Bottle.

Tincture for curing the Tooth-Ach, and cleaning the Teeth, 1 s. the Bottle.

The Universal Family MEDICINE,

Being a perfect and Speedy Cure for the SCURVY.

Still more and more fam'd, after upwards of Twenty Years Success with the Publick,

Is sold by the Author's Appointment, now only at Mr Sandwell's Toy-shop, the Sign of the Griffin, the Corner of Bucklersbury, in the Poultry, London; and by Mr. Martin, at the Sign of the Duke of Cumberland, in Cranbourn-Alley near Leicester Fields, 3 s. the Bottle Retail.

It is to be taken at any Season of the Year, and is so very agreeable to Young and Old, that Children take it without Trouble, a few Drops being a Dose; and so gentle, that it weakens not the most Aged; for it is a safe and effectual Alterative, if taken in a less Dose than is necessary for Purging.

It is in particular,

A Certain and infallible Cure for the SCURVY, tho' of the longest Standing, and attended with the most aggravated Circumstances, a Distemper so common to English People that great Numbers are solely afflicted with it, and not one in a thousand is wholly exempt from it) being a Cordial Elixir peculiar adapted to that Disease in all its Forms of appearing, from the slightest itching Humour in the Blood, to it's utmost or last Efforts on Human Nature.

For it is a true Specifick Cordial, that perfectly cures that Distemper by gentle Evacuation, by Stool and Urine, the only sure and effectual Way perfectly to cure the Scurvy, &c. and prevent Relapses. It so powerfully rectifies the Blood and Juices, that scrophulous Cases are also speedily cured by it, and all Spots, Blotches, Pimples, &c. on the Skin, are quickly and entirely taken off, the Patients made lively and brisk, many chronick Diseases prevented, and a due State of Health secured.

It removes all Pain in the Stomach, helps Digestion, it is the best Medicine in the World to destroy Worms in Children or grown People, and prevent their Return; for it scours away all those ropy, viscid Humours which breed them in their Bowels, and is so well adapted to all Constitutions, that it is deservedly esteem'd the most generally Family Medicine that ever was known.

Good Allowance is given Wholesale by Mr. Sandwell for ready Money, to Country Shopkeepers, &c. to sell again. This Medicine will keep good many Years in any Climate. The printed Directions given with it are large and full.

It is not sold by Mr. Hildyard in York.

An immediate and never-failing Cure for DEAFNESS Thickness of Hearing, Noise or Pain in the Ears, &c.

BY a noble Chymical Preparation, the most excellent Medicine for this Purpose that ever was known, far exceeding all Things ever yet publish'd, or made Use of; its Virtues are beyond Expression, and cannot be truly known but by Experience: Words come short of its just Praise.

It is a certain, and, as it were, an instant Cure for Deafness, Thickness of Hearing, Noise or Pain in the Ears, from what Cause soever, or of ever so long standing, having cur'd vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes and all Ages, that have been in a Manner totally deaf, after all other Means and Medicines, external and internal, by Advice, and also by Publication, have fail'd, with the greatest Ease and Safety, and to their utmost Satisfaction and Wonder; for

In a peculiar Manner, it strengthens, softens and loosens the Drum of the Ear, which by being dry'd or shrivell'd, is often the first and chief Cause of every Complaint of want of Hearing, or of Noise or Pain in the Ears, &c. to remedy all which, this noble Medicine is a true Specifick that never fails perfectly to cure all possibly curable Cases, after all other Means and Medicines have utterly fail'd, which is more than can be said of any other Thing in the whole World besides itself. Any Cold in the Head, or any Hurt by congeal'd Matter in the Ears, it instantly cures.

It is sold for 3 s. 6 d. each Bottle, by the Author's special Appointment, (Mr Richards being dead) by Mrs. Stephens, a Milliner, at the Sign of the Blue Ball, near the Middle Temple Gate in Fleet-street, and no where else in England.

The True Cordial QUINTESSENCE of VIPERS the most Noble and Grand Preparation in the whole Materia Medica, for the real, substantial Cure of Impotency in Men, and Barrenness in Women; and is vastly preferable to Viper Wine, or any other Preparation of Vipers whatever, as being replete with the full and whole Virtues of them.

A Few Drops of it only, gives such a generous Warmth, and exceedingly delights the Vital and Animal Spirits, Senses, and Nerves, as soon to shew what it will do, upon a little Continuance of it; for it not only promotes, and prompts to a Desire, but also furnishes proper Matter, for the Support and Establishment of a true lasting Inclination and Power.

By this Means it answers the End as well of Food as Physick, nor is there any thing in Nature besides, that can in that Respect come up to it considering that it universally nourishes and restores in all the Declensions of Desire and Vigour, without the least forcing the Vessels, or stimulating the Parts, as most other Medicines for these Purposes do: And tho' it be a Maxim in Physick, that SINE CERERE & BACCHO FRIGET VENUS, this, in itself, is so sufficiently nutritious as to want no Assistance that Way, not but it must be allowed, that good Eating and Drinking with it, cannot but in some Degree, at least as an Auxiliary contribute to its Efficacy.

Nor does it only furnish Matter, and create Desire, but also true Power (as it braces up and corroborates the Testes) and gives an elastick Springiness to the Musculi Erectores Penis in Men, and corrects, cleanses, and comforts the Uterus, or Womb, in Women. The Lankness and Laxity of the former, and the Founess, Coldness, or Obstruction of the latter, being more the Cause of Impotency or Infertility, in those Sex, and Indifferency or Sterility in the other naturally Thing else besides; and that it is Balsamick, and greatly Restorative, is confirmed by long Experience, and we have many Instances in Physical Writings, of Persons arriving to a healthful old Age, as well as recover'd from deplorable Decays and Weaknesses, by a continued Use of the common Preparations of Vipers, which this Quintessence, by being vastly more Efficacy, brings about in a Quarter of the Time, and with the Tenth Part of the Quantity.

Those who but once try it, will so pleasantly experience in nutritive quickening Properties, in exhilerating the Heart, reviving the Spirits, comforting the Vitals, circulating the Juice, and recreating and renovating, as it were the whole Man, that they will never be without it; for it is such a present Help, in Time of Need, as that on the taking then but a Dose or two more of it than ordinary, it will so instantaneously animate the dull inactive Spirits, and rouze up and actuate the sluggish enfeebled Faculties, in both Sexes, as to excite and capacitate where it could hardly be expected: and at the same Time seldom fails to render that conjugal Intercourse Prolifick, Price Half a Guinea the Bottle.

Mr. West, Goldsmith, who us'd to sell these Bottles, being lately dead, it is now Sold only by his Son-in-Law, Mr. Johnson, a Baker, at the Seven Stars in Vere-Street, Clare-Market, sealed up with Directions (for any Messenger) upon asking for only a bottle of Quintessence.

The most wonderful cleansing and strengthning Drops for all Sorts of Gleets, and Seminal Weaknesses and Imbecilities of the Generative Parts and Faculties, preventing Miscarriages in Women; and to cleanse and strengthen the Reins, Kidnies and Bladder, cure weak Backs, Strangeries, Gravel, and Stoppage of the Urine, and for which it has gained such Repute, that near 30000 Bottles have been sold since April 1734, that they were first publish'd.

THESE incomparable Drops, which for the abovesaid Disorders are not to be equall'd in the whole Art of Medicines were prescrib'd by the late Dr Ratcliffe, for a certain noble Lord, who for a long Time had been vex'd with an old obstinate Gleet and Weakness, of which he was cured by them in a few Days, beyond all Expectation, after he had been harrass'd with Electuaries, Bolusses, Pills, Potions, Injections, and a hundred other Medicines, for many Months together in vain.

The Apothecary who prepared them for him according to the Doctor's Prescription (which he has still upon his File) has made Use of them ever since to Numbers of People in the very worst of Gleets, seminal and genital Imbecilities and Infertilities, Pains in the Back and Reins, Disorders of the Urine and Gravel, &c. with the utmost Success and Safety; as also in all Weaknesses from Strains, as well as Venereal Relicts, excessive Coition, Self Pollution, seminal Emissions in Sleep, Falls, Blows, Wrenches, and the like, in both Sexes.

And as they have never once failed him, even in Cases thought to be incurable, he now, for general Good, has made them publick: And that the meaner Sort of People might partake of the Benefit of so divine a Remedy as well as the Rich, he has put them up in Bottles of but 3 s. 6 d each, tho' for the Excellency of their Effects they are worth their Weight in Gold, more especially as one Bottle of them generally Cures, even in the most draining Gleets, and grievous Relaxations and Weaknesses of the Seminals and Genitals, as also of the Back and Reins, that are.

Nor can there be prepared, by any Art or Skill, a more cleansing and healing, or a more strengthening and invigorating Medicine, or one that can more effectually cure Impotency, or promote Fertility, than this, as every one that but once tries it will say, by their soon finding the Difference between this and other Remedies; for it will do more in one Day towards restoring in these Weaknesses than any others can in ten, and is of so corroborating a Nature that it may be entirely rely'd upon for curing perfectly and firmly, without Fear of Relapse, even in the tenderest Constitutions, which can hardly be said of any other Medicine; and it is withal so elegantly pleasant to the Palate, and so agreeable to the Stomach that the nicest Person is delighted with it.

Mr. West, Goldsmith, who us'd to sell these Drops being dead, they are now Sold only by his Son-in Law, Mr. Johnson, a Baker, at the Seven Stars, in Vere-street, near Clare-Market, sealed up, with Directions, for any Messenger upon asking only for a Bottle of Drops and paying 3 s 6 d.

The real Short and infallible Cure for that reigning Disease the SCURVY and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived in the highest or most inveterate Degree, or of ever so many Years standing, and that without a Confinement, or the least Purging, which, by an unaccountable Infatuation, is generally advised, altho' always found rather to encrease and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS.

WHICH, without the least Trouble, Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, does at once strike at the true Cause of the Scurvy, and entirely destroy it, and all Scorbutick Humors and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never to return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them, in Three Days Time are convinced; for they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from all Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Botches, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions or Breakings out, Weakness of the Limbs, languid Heaviness of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies conceal'd under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Distempers.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages, (whence proceed Head-Achs, Vapours, and other Indispositions) no Bitters, nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them; insomuch that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy, in all its Shapes and Appearances, they assuredly and directly cure the Green-Sickness in Virgins, Worms, of all Kinds, in Young or Old, and almost all other Chronick Diseases, which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illnesses.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and enliven the whole Machine, and as soon as taken, make the Patient pleasantly lightsome, brisk and vigorous to Admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to procure a sound and healthful State of Body.

But the great Reputation these so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS have so universally gain'd among Persons of Eminence, for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humors, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an easy and agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them; some under the same, and others under other Names; be careful therefore not to be deceived, but be sure to have the Right, which, by the Author's special Appointment, are to be had, only at the Gentlewoman's at the two blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, London, at 5s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions.

For the direct Cure of IMBECILLITY OF IMPOTENCY in MEN, whether occasioned, by Pollutio sui, Seminal Weaknesses of any kind, or any other Defect of the Generative Faculties.

And also

Of BARRENNESS in WOMEN, tho' of many Years Continuance, and proceeding from draining Weaknesses, Coldness of Constitution, or any other Cause whatever.

The Famous and Inestimable

PROLIFICK ELIXIR,

The highest, richest, and most powerful Cordial in Nature is recommended,

BEING the only true and Infallible Cure for Impotency in Men and Barrenness in Women, in the Universe, and which it at once accomplishes without the least Trouble, even after all other Remedies have fail'd, as Thousands have Experienced, and that by promoting the chearful Curricle of the Blood and Juices, raising all the Fluids from their languid depressed State, to one more florid and sparkling; opening all Obstructions, fortifying the Nerves, encreasing the Animal Spirits, restoring a Juvenile Bloom, and evidently replenishing the crispy Fibres of the whole Habit, with a generous Warmth and balmy Moisture, and thereby invigorating it to such a Degree as not to be imagin'd, but by those who have experienced how exceedingly and suddenly it renovates, recruits and powerfully strengthens all the Animal Faculties, and Generative Powers in both Sexes. It inforces a bright lively Disposition banishes Melancholy, and inspires Mirth and Gladness of Heart beyond Expression.

Abundance of Ladies, who for several Years were deem'd incurably Barren, have after twice taking it, conceived and became Fruitful, and great Numbers of Gentlemen, who by fast living, Strains, or Self Abuses, had render'd themselves incapable of Procreation, have soon been enabled by it to propagate their Species, insomuch that very many illustrious Families, who, for want of Children, were almost inconsolable, are now blest with happy Issue, and are (under Providence) indebted to this Great Medicine for their Heirs.

It rectifies all Disorders of the Stomach, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digestion, and in all Weakness of Body, or Decay of Constitution of any Kind, is a most infallible Restorative, and even seems to keep back the Effects of Old Age it self.

It is to be taken but a few Drops at a Time, has a very fine Flavour, is pleasant to the Palate, Cordial to the Stomach, and can be had only at the Gentlewoman's at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, London, at 5s. a Bottle, sealed up with printed Directions, and Advice at large.

The So-much Fam'd HYPO-DROPS.

WHICH in a few Days infallibly cure Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Vapours in Women, so as never to return again, be they ever so severe, or of many Years standing, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual; and that by immediately striking at the very Root or true Cause, as well as remedying the Effects, of those perplexing Maladies and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they mimick, by Turns, almost all the Diseases poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Rise from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigestion of Food whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Disorders in the first Passages, ill Fumes, sour Belchings, Cholick, and Uneasiness in the Bowels; which Crudities offend the Nerves, and, by Consent of Parts, affect the Head, and produce sometimes Giddiness, Dimness of Sight, confused Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, troublesome Sleep, Frights, groundless Fears, and the deepest Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehensions; at other times, Fits, flashing Heats, Reachings, Faintness, Lowness and Sinking of Spirits, and Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Tremblings and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulsive Disorders, sharp Pains, fix'd or wandering, Pain and Weakness in the Back, and other, almost innumerable and grievous, Symptoms, which miserably afflict vast Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms in their sharpest Paroxysms, these so much fam'd and most pleasant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the most valuable Specificks in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the highest Degree of Perfection possible) instantly quell, and at the same time annihilate their real Cause, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, rectifying the Digestion, occasioning laudable Chyle, and, of course, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and chearful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves (so that both Cause and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours, are thoroughly removed by them, almost on the Spot, as the many Thousands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured, evince.

Whoever takes them for three Days only, will be sensible they are absolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and lasting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross-Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, London, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with printed Directions and Advice at large.

For the VENEREAL DISEASE.

THE shortest, safe, and regular Cure, this Day in the World, from the slightest Infection to the most inveterate Degree of it, by a Medicine as pleasant to take, and as easy in its Operation as it is effectual in its Cure; so that the unfortunate Patient gets suddenly and surprisingly well, without Distaste to his Palate, the least Disorder of Body, or any Confinement whatever. This is that great Remedy, now so well known and long experienced to be truly infallible, and is the Grand ANTI-SIPHYLICON that Radcliff and Garth used to say would totally extirpate the Venereal Disease fom the Face of the Earth, were it but universally known, and properly taken. Fresh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their cruel attendant Symptoms, it presently cures; and if taken in Time, even prevents their taking Place. It is a safe, gentle, and pleasant Family Purge, even for Children as well as grown Persons, in all Cases where Purging is necessary; nor can the deepest Scurvy, Rheumatism, Gout, Evil, or Leprosy, stand before it, but are pleasantly cured and thoroughly extirpated by it, as well as the highest and most inveterate State of the confirmed Venereal Disease; which, with all its most raging Symptoms, it soon eradicates, restoring Health, Strength, and Vigour to the Body.

Hence it is, that so many Practitioners in Town and Country send for it for their Patients, as finding it absolutely to be depended upon, and much more safe and effectual than any other Medicine whatever. Those who once take it, will never have Recourse to any Thing else. One Pot in most Cases is sufficient for a Cure.

Price 6s. a Pot, sealed up with a Book of Instructions, by which all Persons may fully understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is rooted out of their Bodies. Note, This Grand Anti-Siphylicon is now, by the Author's Appointment, to be had only at Mr. Eglinton's (Mr. Radford being deceased) at the Golden Pair of Spectacles against the East-End of the New Church in the Strand, London. Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy. No Letters answered unless Post-paid.

To Persons of either Sex,
Afflicted with any Species of the PALSY, or other Nervous Decays.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES, PALSIES, and PARALYTICK DISORDERS so frequent as of late they have been, nor have the usual Remedies been found adequate to those pertinacious Distempers: This occasioned a Physician, who employed his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palsy, and all other Nervous Complaints now reigning, which, after he had experienced on vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and always with surprizing Success even so as infallibly to cure by it the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Disorders, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that so those labouring under these miserable Ailments might know where to meet with a safe and most certain Cure, which it accomplishes in so short a Time, and with such Ease and Pleasure (a few Drops of it being a Dose, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels) as is almost incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only demonstrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients soon finds all Numbness, Deadness, and shaking, or Resolution of the Nerves, as well as all convulsive, cramp-like, or painful Contractions of them, vanish and return no more, and this, though these Diseases have been of many Years standing, and whether occasioned by long Illness, fast Living, hard drinking, or any other Cause; for it performs all that can be wished for in Nervous Cases, creates an Appetite, expells Wind, rectifies the Digestion, occasions laudable Chyle, attennuates the Blood and Juices, causes a free and regular Circulation of 'em thro' the Capillary Vessels, revives and increases the Spirits, warms, comforts, strengthens, and replenishes the Brain and whole Nervous System, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs restored to their pristine Steadiness and Strength, and the Palsy and all Paralitick Disorders and Nervous Decays suddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themselves, and all about them.

This sovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be sold only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, London, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure, even by the very best Method and Medicine in usual Practice, than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses, whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, virulent Strains, Pollutio sui, or any other Cause whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, so as certainly since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, enfeeble the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such therefore who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetes, Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe and speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by the taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary, now published for a general Good, after having for many Years in private Practice been experienced never once to fail of perfectly curing the most stubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels and Urinary Passages, which it almost instantly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is wonderfully Restorative in all Weaknesses and Decay of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels, to an immense Degree, insomuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigued with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weakness of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surprised at it.

It is from this its most extraordinary Efficacy that so many Practitioners in Town and Country, send for it for their Patients, as finding it to be the only sure and infallible Remedy that can be safely rely'd upon, in those Cases.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a safe, speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been try'd in vain; too much cannot be said in Praise of it, and this all who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purposes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, which is less than as much, and is ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will be complete Master of his own Case, and perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with proceeds from Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the foul Disease is entirely extirpated or not.

Note, This fam'd Balsamic Electuary is now, by the Author's Appointment, to be had only at Mr. Eglinton's, (Mr. Radford being deceased) at the Golden Pair of Spectacles, against the East-End of the New Church in the Strand, London. Ask only for the Six Shilling Pot for the Balsamic Electuary. No Letters answer'd, unless Post-paid.
